

As an American journalist and author, I want rules in place that serve a free voicing of ideas. More media consolidation will be bad for our country. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.